6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him."
- Jn 14:20-21

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ©LPI

Inspired by the heart of Mary
we exist as a beacon to serve our community by being and forming disciples of Jesus and proclaiming the Kingdom of God to all we encounter.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Remembering the Pandemic

How often do you cry these days? I admit that I cry nearly every day, always in response to some heroic act I see featured on tv. When I hear the first responders---the ambulance drivers and EMTs, especially--describe desperately trying to get a patient to the hospital before they die, I can barely watch.

But when they interview the exhausted nurses and doctors, and hear their answers to the inevitable questions about how they are getting through their shifts without breaking down, I long to hear just one of them reference that scripture text we have today from 1 Peter: Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope.

In Catholic New York, I long to hear at least one baptized and confirmed health care hero say, "Well, I'm Catholic. That means I'm never alone. I bring the whole Body of Christ with me when I put on my protective equipment and enter the ward. And, of course, I have all the angels and saints holding me through my shift every day."

In my daily prayer I picture those angels and saints holding parents tight, giving them patience and strength as they face another ALL KIDS ALL DAY marathon. I picture angels guiding and holding every kind of First Responder. The reason for our hope, right in the middle of this terror, is that the Holy Spirit is guiding the researchers and every person placing their precious lives on the line. Where is God in all of this? Right there in the ambulance, right there in the ventilator. God did not make death. That is the reason for our hope.

Do you ever share with anyone the reason for your hope?

SEXTO DOMINGO DE PASCUA

RECORDANDO LA PANDEMIA

¿Qué tan a menudo lloras últimamente? Te admito que yo lloro casi todos los días, casi siempre después de haber visto algún acto heroico en la tele. Cuando oigo a rescatistas—especialmente a los conductores de ambulancia y paramédicos—describiendo como intentan desesperadamente llevar a un paciente al hospital antes de que muera, muy a penas puedo seguir viendo.

Pero cuando entrevistan a los exhaustos médicos y enfermeros, y escucho sus respuestas a las inevitables preguntas de cómo hacen para sobrevivir sus largos turnos sin desmoronarse, añoro oír aunque sea a uno de ellos referirse al texto de escritura que tenemos hoy de la primera carta de Pedro: Estén siempre preparados a responder a todo el que les pida razón de la esperanza que ustedes tienen.

En el Nueva York católica, añoro oír al menos a uno de los héroes bautizados y confirmados decir: “Bueno, yo soy católico. Eso significa que jamás estoy solo. Llevo a todo el Cuerpo de Cristo conmigo cuando me pongo mi equipo protector y entro al pabellón medico. Y por supuesto, tengo a todos los ángeles y los santos sosteniéndome en mi jornada diaria.”

En mi oración diaria imagino a todos aquellos ángeles y santos sosteniendo fuerte a esos padres, dándoles paciencia y fuerza para enfrentar otro maratón de TODO EL DÍA CON LOS NIÑOS. Imagino a los ángeles guiando y sosteniendo a cada rescatista. La razón de nuestra esperanza, justo en medio de todo este terror, es que el Espíritu Santo guía a los investigadores y a cada persona que pone en riesgo su preciada vida en la línea de guerra. ¿Y Dónde está Dios en todo esto? Ahí mismo en la ambulancia, ahí en el ventilador. Dios no hizo la muerte. Esa es la razón de nuestra esperanza.

¿Nunca compartes con alguien la razón de tu esperanza?
